

On May 19th and 20th, Peninsula Symphony will be performing the epic space suite The Planets by Gustav Holst at the San Mateo Performing Arts Center, and at the Heritage Theater in Campbell. In the spirit of exploration and creativity, we're holding an art contest for local elementary and middle school students. Winners will get a free ticket to attend our performance and see their art displayed during the performance.

Rules

- The students (s) must be in 1st through 8th grade.
- The art must feature one or more of the seven planets included in Holst's piece. They are Mars, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune.
- The art must be on an 8.5 by 11 inch sheet of paper.
- The submission deadline is May 5th, 2017.
- There are no right or wrong interpretations. Any style is accepted.

Please mail your artwork to The Peninsula Symphony Planets Art Contest 146 Main St. #102, Los Altos, CA. 94022 Questions? Email shahin@peninsulasymphony.org	Please include the following information on the back of your art: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Student's Name2. Age3. Grade4. School Name5. Contact Information
---	--

Winners of this contest will be given a free ticket to the concert. Their art will be featured in the lobby or projected in a slideshow during the performances.